

UGC Community College: MHRD and UGC New Delhi sanctioned community college scheme to our college in 2013. The college has started two courses Diploma in Food Preservation and Diploma in Healthcare from 2014 to cop up with local needs. This facilitates socio-economic development of the region. Ours is the first UGC community college in Maharashtra which is run conventional degree college.

Vision:

To develop an educational institution of the community, for the community and by the community for creating responsible local citizens and empowering the community.

Aim:

To empower individuals with alternative system of education.

Objective:

To educate and train the local population in skill development leading to gainful employment and there by facilitate economic development of the region, through education and employment.

Our Focus Areas

- Livelihood promotion, Self-Employment and Entrepreneurship Development.
- Leadership and Capacity Building
- Women Empowerment
- Development of Skilled Human Resources

Salient Features

- Tailor made programs to suit local needs.
- All programs are skilled based, modular and credit based.
- Job and industry orientation with local collaborations for on job training and placements.
- Experienced and committed trainers with relevant experience.
- Personalized coaching and student counseling.
- Assessment through sector skill councils
- Stipend of Rs. 1000 thousand per month for the year.